

Coir is sometimes referred to as coconut matting; the coir entrance door mat product has been servicing doors and entranceways for many years and is allowable only in certain circumstances to be used in public entrances under the BS8300 DDA regulation.

Coir is a hard working natural fibre, PVC backed entrance doormat, and now very versatile, available in nine colours at the 17mm thickness only.

Coir can be used in commercial, retail, industrial, or public entrances and doorways in both matwells and only surface mounted for domestic applications.

Thickness's greater than 17mm must not be used where the public have access.

Colours: Natural, Black, Havana, Red, Blue, Grey, Green, Gold, Brown.
